Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, King Edward VI Aston School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- contacting Miss Pierce, ideally by telephone

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Mr Brady, Head teacher

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 3 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- email Mr Brady with details of the complaint.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 3 working weeks, depending on the nature of the investigation.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- follow the centre's internal appeals procedure

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 3 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- the Chair of Governors.

It will be the responsibility of the Head teacher, Mr Brady, to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.

Additional details on the internal appeals process:

Not applicable
